

BRC QUARTERLY KNICKS IN 5!!

Big Richards Company Quarterly Newsletter.
Issue Two - July 2026

Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

Thanks for picking up the second edition of my Zine. This one seems much different in tone from my first, but I hope you will like it nonetheless. It is heavily focused on the Knicks, but in all honestly that's been really big to me.

I hope you can look past my thoughts if they get too personal. I've had much to think about. But I promise I'm doing all right. "We Ball".

Working on this was really quite fun. I have enjoyed seeing other peoples blog posts, updates, reports, and other fun ways to keep in touch. I hope if you feel inspired to create something fun or something to share you will pursue that desire. It's really quite rewarding and the connection when people enjoy it is really special. Chase after it in any form. And as Kat says, "your first draft probably wont be good!" And it doesn't have to be! Something is better and funner then nothing.

All the Best.

Post 8 Odds and Ends.

Literally just random thoughts I had that didn't constitute their own page.

Holy Script

I think of "blessed are the peacemakers." I invite you all to become peacemakers and strive to encourage others to seek peace and harmony as well.

"© bury me not on the lone prairie."
These words came low and mournfully
From the pallid lips of the youth who lay
On his dying bed at the close of day

"© bury me not on the lone prairie
Where coyotes howl and the wind blows free
In a narrow grave just six by three—
© bury me not on the lone prairie"

"I wish to lie where a mother's prayer
And a sister's tear will mingle there
Where friends can come and weep o'er me
© bury me not on the lone prairie."

"© bury me not..." And his voice failed there
But they took no heed to his dying prayer
In a narrow grave, just six by three
They buried him there on the lone prairie

I Ponder life sometimes, I find interest in the abruptness of this cowboys prayer, but I also believe these creatures have a good point, Why worry? I'll be dead when I die.

A photograph of three pronghorn antelope in a green, grassy field. One adult pronghorn is on the left, another adult is on the right, and a small, spotted pronghorn calf is in the center foreground. The background shows a hilly, arid landscape under a clear sky.

Death does not concern us, because as long as we exist, death is not here.

And when it does come, we no longer exist.

MY TOP NEW ADDITIONS TO MY LIBRARY

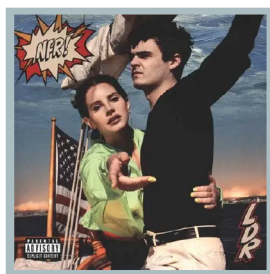

DIET PEPSI

- ADDISON RAE

THIS SONG I GUESS WAS HUGE LAST YEAR, BUT I JUST RECENTLY DISCOVERED IT, THE KEY CHANGE IN THE LAST VERSE GOES SO HARD.

WELCOME HOME, SON
RADICAL FACE
THIS SONG REMINDS ME OF THE BEST PARTS OF HIGH SCHOOL. I PROMISE I DID NOT PEAK IN HIGH SCHOOL.

CINNAMON GIRL - LANA DEL RAY

PART OF LANA'S MOVEMENT INTO MORE OPTIMISTIC LYRICS COMPARED TO ULTRAVIOLENCE, ITS GOT A HYPNOTIC BEAT AND CHORUS, I HIGHLY RECOMMEND IT. ALSO CHECK OUT MARINERS APARTMENT COMPLEX ON THE SAME ALBUM.

PARTY 4 U - CHARLI XCX

I KNOW I AM LATE TO THE CHARLI XCX SCENE BUT I THINK THIS IS SUCH A INTIMATE SONG. SHE SINGS ABOUT LOVE AND DEVOTION AND I REALLY THINK IT'S BEAUTIFUL. THE BUILDING CHORDS ARE REALLY SPECTACULAR AS WELL.

GOLD STAR AWARD!!!

HUMAN NATURE - MICHAEL JACKSON

THIS SONG HAS SNUCK UP ON ME AND TAKEN OVER MY LIFE. IT'S SO BEAUTIFUL AND THE MELODY IS INTOXICATING. MICHAEL GIVES A GREAT PERFORMANCE. I ALSO FOUND OUT IT WAS WRITTEN BY A GUY IN TOTO WHICH MAKES A LOT OF SENSE 12/10 STARS

The Knicks win really was impactful to me. I find a lot of inspiration in their story. It is a group of people who have been called not enough. Too small, too weak, too sensitive their whole careers. They believed in themselves and what they are capable of, and never backed down. They worked harder than anyone just to prove they have just as much of a shot. They stood up to their critics and let their game play speak for them.

Their journey wasn't easy but they stuck together and worked with each other where they were at. If one of them fell, they would help each other back up. I really think game 4 is a prime example of this, they were down 81-52. But their mindset said we don't need to do this all at once, let's get the game within 25, then 20, then 15, 10, 5, and then let's win it. It was almost not enough, Josh Hart had the chance to give the Knicks a cushion, but he bricked a layup, then fouled on the other side. Putting the Spurs back in contention with under a minute left. The Knicks just pick up a defeated Josh Hart. And encouraged each other, They then made a risky 3 point play that wasn't going to go in. But OG was focused and was able to tip the ball in for the win. Bringing the Knicks a game 4 win.

Jalen Brunson later said, “You're allowed to think about the worst possible scenario, but you gotta go out there and do something about it.” I think that is a really great thought. This year has been one of the hardest of my life. And while there are so many great things happen, disappointments happen and things just get hard. I find a lot of inspiration with the Knicks grind. If you never give up and keep working and pushing towards what you believe in, Whether its likely to happen or not, you can achieve the impossible. Just keep pushing and don't let naysayers or doubters or even mistakes, problems or just life keep you down.

You only have one life, may as well go for chasing your dreams.

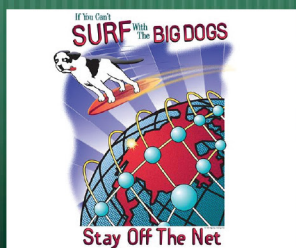

FROM THE WEBSITE

As a part of my effort to make more things, I created a website. Please visit it at BRAYDENRICHARDS.COM It's still a work in progress, and I doubt by the time you read this it will be very polished, however there are some fun things there! Big Shoutout to Jake and his websites tutorial on how to make a site! I highly recommend it! Check the link on my site to his!

For example feel free to watch Brayden TV. (The password is Peaches or peaches I can't remember) I wanted to emulate the Television experience from my childhood. Commercials will play every fifteen minutes. Feel free to switch channels and see what's on! You may be surprised. I am always looking for new ideas on features or things to add. Please let me know if you have any ideas!

The Oracle

I have gotten countless letters asking about what the secret project in my odds and ends section from last issue is. I am pleased to announce the ORACLE! The ORACLE is a request printer I have connected to my website where you may send messages, questions and other fun things to. And once sent it prints it! I have been testing it with my brain trust and it's been quite fun so far. I am exploring posting to instagram the submissions. But we will see! Please send me thoughts, Trivia, photos and other fun things! The link is available on my website!

The ORACLE also creates daily run
downs of my day
and other fun and

My TRIP TO NEW YORK

I went to NYC for the weekend to attend the Knicks Watch Party at MSG.

I flew in on a red eye with my dear friends Abby and Krev. It was a bit of a miserable experience though so I don't think I will do that red eye again anytime soon.

Once arrived at JFK, I used instructions sent via ORACLE to find my friend Steph and Jake's apartment. I did get slightly turned around but I was able to think my way through the problem.

It was a good time to finally try all the places I see Jake talking about. Nothing beats NYC Chinese, Street Meat, or Pizza.

Many memories from when I was a missionary in NYC were coming back. It was a very interesting but fun time of life. NYC is always going to be special to me.

It was electric to be there during the Knicks Finals run. The City came alive, and everyone was united. Although I only saw a brief sliver. This Summer in NYC is different. I will be remembering that version of NYC for a long time.

Big shout out to Steph and Jake for letting me crash on their couch.

OODS AND ENDS

It's been good to see people coming around on the Burger King Whopper. It was good before the update and it's just better now. If you find yourself saying what is Brayden talking about, Please go try a Whopper. They are the best burger in the game. (Of the big 3)

Speaking of Big Back Activities, Next time you have McDonalds Chicken Nuggets, try mixing the Sweet and Sour and Ranch. It's way better then it has any right to be.

I have been working on upgrading my home office, I just put in some shelves that can display some of my legos that I haven't built yet because they are big sets. Its really changed the flow of the room, but I think I like it. It helps everything feel more warm. Please send me your interior decorating tips. I am interested in doing more.

I have always loved glow in the dark things, and I just learned that you can buy the pigment that causes the glow effect in bulk, its a powder, but send me ideas of what I should do with some. Right now I am thinking of making some glow in the dark paint.
